

The Greek National Opera is the leading opera company in Greece, delivering top-quality productions to audiences both domestically and internationally with a diverse range of performances including operas, ballets, operettas, children's operas, and recitals.

The Orchestra of the Greek National Opera, established in 1939 alongside the opera company, has performed with internationally acclaimed conductors and soloists throughout its history, and its opera repertoire includes everything from Monteverdi to contemporary composers, as well as symphonic music.

Since 2017 the Greek National Opera has found its new home at the Stavros Niarchos Foundation Cultural Center, solidifying its position as a beacon of cultural heritage and artistic excellence in Greece and garnering a distinguished reputation on the global stage.

GREEK NATIONAL OPERA ORCHESTRA

CONCERTMASTER AUDITION (PERMANENT)

The Greek National Opera Orchestra will hold an audition for a Concertmaster post (permanent, 50% obligation) in October 2024.

Information regarding the exact date of the audition, application requirements, orchestral excerpts etc. will be announced in the beginning of September as required by the Greek law and an updated announcement will follow on the official site of GNO www.nationalopera.gr

The audition will take place at the GNO building, Stavros Niarchos Foundation Cultural Center (SNFCC), 364 Syggrou Ave., Athens, Kallithea 17674, Greece.

Repertoire requirements:

1. One of the following Concertos:

W.A.Mozart: a) Concerto No.5 in A major, KV 219

b) Concerto No.4 in D major, KV 218

c) Concerto No.3 in G major, KV 216

2. A musical work of candidate's choice

3. Orchestral excerpts (to be announced)

4. Prima Vista

For further information please contact:

Orchestra Office

- Alexis Theophylactou

Orchestra Director GNO Orchestra

- Maria Aggelopoulou

Secretary

Tel: +302130885791

Email: orchestra@nationalopera.gr

- Protocol of GNO

Tel: +302130885860

Email: protocol@nationalopera.gr