

French Horn & Trombone Teacher

Saturdays, during term time

London Youth Conservatoire is one of the largest and most successful non-selective music schools in London with over 400 students and 37 teachers. The School offers a comprehensive music education from beginner to Grade 8 and beyond with individual instrumental lessons; musicianship and theory classes; and several orchestras, ensembles, jazz groups and choirs. We welcome students aged 4 to 18 and adults.

Position:

London Youth Conservatoire is looking for an experienced and enthusiastic French Horn & Trombone teacher from Saturday 11th January 2025 onwards. The planned workload is 5 hours of lessons:

- 1h30 of 1-1 trombone lessons
- 1h30 of 1-1 French Horn lessons
- One hour of teaching Prelude brass students (instrument discovery course for beginners)
- One hour of assisting the Junior Orchestra (grade 1-3)

Lessons take place on Saturdays (currently between 8.30am and 2pm).

Requirements:

- A relevant music degree, ideally gained at a music conservatoire (or similar)
- A passion for pedagogy, with an ability to inspire the students
- Experience of teaching children age 5+ and adults alike
- Ability to teach from beginner to diploma level
- Strong track record in preparing students for grade exams (ABRSM/Trinity)
- Good professional performing experience
- Energetic, punctual, organised, and able to work as part of a team
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Experience in the Kodály approach, or willingness to learn in order to incorporate some elements in your teaching
- Relevant safeguarding training

Days:

Saturdays, during term time only, until 5th July 2025. Term dates available on our website.

Employment type:
