

Bassoon Teacher

Sheffield Music Academy is seeking an inspiring bassoon teacher to join our team. If you're enthusiastic about nurturing young people's musical development, we'd love to hear from you.

Job requirements

- Deliver engaging, dynamic lessons to individual students and in small group settings.
- Inspiring young people to fulfil their potential through fun, rewarding, and engaging learning.
- Promote a safe, inclusive, and supportive environment.
- Availability to work 30 Saturdays per academic year in Sheffield.

What we're looking for

- Conservatoire training in bassoon.
- Proven experience teaching bassoon to young people of various ages and stages.
- A passion for fostering young people to be their best, with experience helping them to develop both technically and artistically.
- A proactive, can-do attitude with a focus on delivering excellence, while maintaining a professional approach to all aspects of the role.
- Professional attitude towards safeguarding, promoting best practice at all opportunities.

The successful candidate will be subject to a DBS check, we will provide this for you.

How to apply & more information

Please send a covering letter and CV, outlining your experience and interest in the role, to Matt Wigley, General Manager, matt@sheffieldmusicacademy.co.uk by Friday 7th March.

Please email Matt if you have any further questions.

Phone: 07704 579 310

Email: matt@sheffieldmusicacademy.co.uk