PROMOTION PROGRAM

Overview of the CSM Galicia Promotion Program

The Promotion Program of the Centro Superior de Música de Galicia (CSM Galicia) is an innovative initiative focused exclusively on career development for talented musicians. Designed to provide a robust foundation for professional success, the program offers participants unparalleled opportunities to perform as soloists at the world's most prestigious venues and with renowned orchestras.

1. Concert Opportunities

- Enrolled musicians are guaranteed two performances with professional orchestra per year.
- Performances are curated based on the participants' skill levels and the availability of openings each year, ensuring tailored and meaningful career growth.
- For these concerts, participants' travel and accommodation expenses are covered, allowing them to focus entirely on their artistry and professional development.

2. Auditions and Selection

- The program facilitates auditions for prestigious soloist and conducting roles, helping participants gain visibility in the global music scene.
- Selection is competitive, emphasizing the candidate's preparation and compatibility with available opportunities.

3. Recording Opportunities

- Each enrolled musician will receive one recording project in a professional setting.
- The project includes fully edited, mixed, and mastered audio recording of 10 minute piece for promo use, along with video footage and professional photos from the recording session.
- This comprehensive promotional material is designed to enhance the participant's visibility and career prospects.

4. Strategic Career Development

- Beyond performances, the program prioritizes long-term career building, underscoring the philosophy that "your success is our success."
- Participants receive strategic guidance from CSM Galicia's faculty, including preparation techniques to excel in auditions and performances.

5. Masterclasses in Valga

- Participants have access to specialized masterclasses held at CSM Galicia, focusing on repertoire development and effective strategies for pursuing high-profile concert opportunities.

Program Fees

While participation requires a fee to cover the substantial costs of management, strategic planning, and funding these opportunities, the program delivers exceptional value by connecting musicians with avenues that directly advance their professional journeys.

Vision

The Promotion Program reflects CSM Galicia's unwavering commitment to fostering excellence in classical music. By equipping participants with world-class opportunities, professional recordings, and expert support, the program empowers them to achieve their full potential on the global stage.

FEES

TOTAL PAYMENT

€10,000

Program Fees

The total fee for the CSM Galicia Promotion Program is €10,000.

This fee includes:

- Guaranteed concert opportunities with eminent orchestra (two per year).
- Strategic career development support, including mentorship and preparation guidance.
- One professional recording project featuring edited, mixed, and mastered audio, video recordings, and photos.
- Enrolled musicians will have access to an internal CSM Competition held once per year. This competition serves as selection platform for performances at some of the world's most iconic venues, such as Carnegie Hall, Wiener Musikverein, Smetana Hall Prague etc.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

The terms and opportunities outlined above represent the minimum guaranteed benefits that participants will receive as part of the CSM Galicia Promotion Program. This includes concert performances, recording projects, and access to competitions and auditions.

Additionally, CSM Galicia is continuously working to expand its network of collaborators, partners, and venues to provide participants with even more opportunities to grow and thrive in their careers.

Any additional opportunities beyond the guaranteed terms will be offered as pro-bono, meaning participants will not incur extra charges for these enhancements. These supplementary chances are part of CSM Galicia's commitment to supporting its musicians and fostering their success.

AUDITIONS

Auditions and Enrollment

The audition process for the CSM Galicia Promotion Program is conducted online, allowing musicians from around the world to apply. Candidates must submit video samples of their performance along with a biography for evaluation. Shortlisted applicants will then be invited to an online meeting/interview with the selection committee.

Once accepted, enrolled musicians work closely with CSM professors to design a personalized program tailored to their artistic and professional goals. This collaborative planning marks the beginning of their preparation journey, during which participants receive guidance and support to ensure they are ready for the program's demanding opportunities.

As part of the program, enrolled musicians take part in an annual online session where they are considered for concert and recording opportunities that match their skills and artistic development.
