We are happy to announce the Second Edition of the Vratsa Orchestral conducting course with maestro Miguel Romea and the Vratsa Symphonic.

The 8 active students will work on pieces by Weber ( Oberon overture ) and Brahms (Violin concerto and First Symphony) . The student conductors will perform in the concert that will be held in the venue of the orchestra the 25th of July. The violin will be starred by Anna Fournadgieva , international soloist.

With intensive technical and theoretical classes , as well as everyday rehearsals with the orchestra , this course features one of the most important pedagogic approaches to orchestral conducting led by Maestro Miguel Romea, whose career stretches over 3 decades all around Europe, America and Asia.

Mtro. Romea students are chief conductors in Europe and America
