

Opera Masterclass “Swans of Stevns: From Baroque To Modernity”

Denmark, 18-21.05.05

Associations "Machinchouettes" (Poland) and "Scandinavian Cello School" (Denmark) invite young opera singers of all voice types to apply and participate in a unique opera masterclass, led by distinguished artists and educators Anna Radziejewska and Lilianna Stawarz (Polish Royal Opera, Chopin University of Music in Warsaw). The masterclass will take place at the world famous Scandinavian Cello School and their “Musical Farm” close to the UNESCO-listed Stevns Klint (Stevns Cliff). from May 18-21, 2025.

During the workshops, participants will have the opportunity to work on Baroque repertoire (arias chosen by the participants) as well as modern repertoire exploring a congenial vocal aesthetic in contemporary context (arias by Krzysztof Żelichowski, with the composer’s participation).

Thanks to the support of the European Union, participation in the workshops is free and the organizers will cover the travel costs of selected participants.

The masterclass offers you:

- Free accommodation at Scandinavian Cello School campus, alimention and full coverage of your travel costs
- Three-day workshop with Anna Radziejewska and Lillianna Stawarz, leading authorities on ancient music performance practices in Poland
- A career management workshop led by prof. Jacob Shaw, experienced manager of numerous successful soloists and ensembles
- Collaboration with outstanding HIP instrumentalists invited by Scandinavian Cello School
- A live performance opportunity during the project’s final concert
- An option to prolong your stay at Scandinavian Cello School in a form of artistic retreat
- And much more!

Artists interested in participating are kindly requested to fill out the form available at <https://www.scandinaviancelloschool.com/swans-of-stevns> and send it to office@scandinaviancelloschool.com
