VII. Competition Rules

All compositions must be performed from memory, with the exception of duo sonatas.

All performances shall be open to the public.

The Jury reserves the right to reduce the length of the performance.

Decisions made by the Jury are irrevocable.

Any incorrect information stated in the application will not be permitted.

Scores

We will send the scores of Compulsory pieces to the candidats after they have been selected.

All candidates must use the original scores of the works they perform. The organisers of the competition cannot be held responsible for any fraud by a candidate (public use of illegal copies). Upon arrival in Pula, candidates are required to provide the organisers of the competition with a copy of the scores for their free choice pieces.

Registered and selected candidates who are unable to take part in the Competition must inform the organisers immediately.

Accompanists and rehearsals

Accompanists are provided to participants free of charge. Each candidate is also able to use their own accompanist during the competition on the condition that they do so at their own expense. The free rehearsal time with the accompanist for each candidate is 90 minutes for the Semifinal round and 90 minutes for Finals.

The organisers of the competition reserve the right to modify the rehearsal time according to the number of candidates or under exceptional circumstances. The organisers will inform the candidates of any changes as soon as possible.

The rehearsals with piano and orchestra are private, however, all of the concerts are public.

The complete schedule of the competition includes video submissions and all public events, all of which are recorded.

Welcome for the finalists

The organizer will cover the cost of the accommodation for the finalists only, from the moment they enter the Final Stage.

All other accommodations and travel expenses, however, are the responsibility of the participants.
